

Dangerous Prayers – Here Am I, Send Me

---

A Week in Review

We want our heart to break for what breaks God's heart.

Group Opener

What has been your favorite volunteer experience and why?

Study Questions

Is it difficult for you to make commitments? Why or why not?

What did you think about the illustration of the young man's letter to his future father-in-law about the cost of marrying him and following him wherever the Lord leads?

What's the difference between a cruise-ship and a battleship? Which best describes you and why?

Read Isaiah 6:1-8.

In what ways are you still in awe ("woed") by God?

In what ways are you "wowed" by God?

Is there somewhere or something God is calling you toward? If so, what? How are you planning to respond to His call?

What do you think the following phrase means: "God doesn't call the equipped, He equips the called"?

What are you passionate about & why?

How would you describe a “broken heart”?

What do you think Bob Pierce, founder of World Vision, intended when he said to God, “Break my heart for what breaks yours”?

Who or what has caused you heartbreak?

Have you ever thought about what breaks God’s heart in your own personal relationship with Him? If so, what did the Lord reveal to you?

In what ways have you seen sin break God’s heart and unconfessed sin separate people from God and others?

Where do you turn in times of brokenness? What would it look like for you to lean into the Lord?

How can God use your brokenness for good?

How do you relate to some of those in the Bible who have been moved to action by brokenness?

Are you ready to ask God to “Break your heart for what breaks His”? If so, what’s your next step? If not, what’s it going to take to get you ready?