

Dangerous Prayers – Break My Heart for what Breaks Yours

---

A Week in Review

Humility and faith are what it takes to in order to surrender your will to God's.

Group Opener

How many songs or band names can you think of that reference the heart?

Study Questions

Read Matthew 9:35-38. How does this passage relate to compassion and what matters to God?

What are you passionate about & why?

How would you describe a “broken heart”?

What do you think Bob Pierce, founder of World Vision, intended when he said to God, “Break my heart for what breaks yours”?

Who or what has caused you heartbreak?

Have you ever thought about what breaks God's heart in your own personal relationship with Him? If so, what did the Lord reveal to you?

In what ways have you seen sin break God's heart and unconfessed sin separate people from God and others?

Where do you turn in times of brokenness? What would it look like for you to lean into the Lord?

How can God use your brokenness for good?

How do you relate to some of those in the Bible who have been moved to action by brokenness?

Are you ready to ask God to “Break your heart for what breaks His”? If so, what's your next step? If not, what's it going to take to get you ready?