

He Will Be Called: Wonderful Counselor

---

A Week in Review

Pray on all occasions.

Group Opener

Besides your given first name, what other names do you go by?

Study Questions

Have you ever wished your parents had given you a different name? If so, why?

Do you know what your name means? If so, is it a fair description of the kind of person you are? Explain.

If you have a child or children, how did you decide on their name?

Isaiah 9:6 gives several names for Jesus. Which stands out to you the most and why?

What comes to mind when you hear the words "Wonderful Counselor"?

How would you hope to be referred to by God and by others?

In today's world, we see counselors for many different reasons and tend to trust their counsel. According to Psalm 62:8, when and why should we trust God?

When do you tend to be the most receptive to advice?

What counsel are you currently receiving from Christ? What effect is it having on you and why?

Share a time when you or someone you know was (or wasn't) willing to listen to do what the Lord said.

Is Jesus using you to speak into the lives of others in need of help? If so, how so?

How might you improve your ability to listen and do what the Lord tells you to do?

What is one takeaway from God's word, the sermon or the small group discussion you will seek to incorporate into your life and how?