Last Week

How did you apply last week's lesson? Who did you share the lesson with?

Opener

How well did you do in school growing up? What teacher do you feel like you learned the most from? Why?

Questions

Who was the person who has taught you the most about faith? How did they teach you?

Have you ever had a time where you creatively shared your faith in a unique context (airplane, vacation, work, grocery store, etc)? What was it like?

How can you be more like Bruce Lee in your faith, by "being like water"? How does adapting to your surroundings change how you share your faith? Why is it important to adapt?

In the midst of adapting to the culture and context, why is it important to stand firm on Solid Theology when sharing your faith? Are there temptations to share a more palatable/watered-down faith?

Scripture Discovery:

Have yourself, another group member, or all group members read the following Scripture out loud

1 Corinthians 9:19-23 (NLT)

19 Even though I am a free man with no master, I have become a slave to all people to bring many to Christ. 20 When I was with the Jews, I lived like a Jew to bring the Jews to Christ. When I was with those who follow the Jewish law, I too lived under that law. Even though I am not subject to the law, I did this so I could bring to Christ those who are under the law. 21 When I am with the Gentiles who do not follow the Jewish law, I too live apart from that law so I can bring them to Christ. But I do not ignore the law of God; I obey the law of Christ. 22 When I am with those who are weak, I share their weakness, for I want to bring the weak to Christ. Yes, I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some. 23 I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings.

- What does this passage tell us about God?
- What does this passage tell us about people?
- How do you need to apply this passage to your life?
- And who are you going to tell?
