

VALLEY REAL LIFE

Letting Go, Pressing On | Breaking the Labels that Bind

Last Week

What was your greatest take-away from the Uncommon series?

Opener

If you came with a warning label, what would it say?

Questions

Do you have any labels that others have put on you that have been tough for you to get rid of? Or have you found yourself still living within a label or identity that someone else gave to you?

What are some labels or identities that we know we can claim for ourselves because God has given them to us? Realizing these, what can we accomplish for the Kingdom of God?

In the lesson it was stated; "We are not defined by what we have done, but by what He has done." Why do you think we struggle to confess our sins to God, especially knowing he is ready to forgive us and has given each of us purpose in life?

If you could give yourself an adjective that would be your new name, what would it be?
